Adaptive Weekend for Military Families

August 4 - 6, 2017

Thanks To Yanks is pleased to offer a special weekend at the Adaptive Outdoor Education Center in Carrabassett Valley, Maine for active duty military or veteran families with disabled children.

This is a great opportunity for military families to enjoy recreational and education activities in a fully accessible facility, with a hostel-style lodge and 30' Yurt. Activities may include: adaptive biking (with AOEC staff); fishing (with AOEC staff); hiking; arts & crafts; rock painting; coloring; nature crafts; karaoke; movie night; basketball; corn hole; chats around the fire pit; card games; board games; puzzles; and a nature scavenger hunt.

Thanks To Yanks will cover snacks, drinks, a pizza night and the use of the Center.

Space is extremely limited and on a first-come-first-serve basis.

To reserve space, please email the following information: full name;; active duty/veteran status; the number of family members; ages of the children; the special needs that exist; and what accommodations are required as soon as possible.
