

Marjorie R. Freiman

Ms. Freiman moved to Wellesley with her husband Len in 1991 and together they raised and educated their two sons. She is an attorney, educator, and former Wellesley small-business owner. She served on the Advisory Committee from 2011-14, and as Chair during her last year. She has been a Town Meeting Member since 2013.

Ms. Freiman worked professionally and served on the Board of Directors and as Chair of the Adult Education Committee at Temple Beth Elohim in Wellesley. She is also a member of the volunteer Wellesley Medical Corps, and worked with the 900 Worcester Committee for over three years.

Ms. Freiman earned a B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania, a J.D. from the National Law Center at George Washington University, and a Master's Degree in Jewish Education from Hebrew College in 2002. She practiced law as a litigator in Washington, D.C., taught middle-school Social Justice at the Rashi School, and most recently created an adult-learning fellowship for community leaders at Hebrew College.
